NONCOMPLIANCE SUMMARY

The offender has not complied with the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance

1 The offender has violated the special supervision condition which states 'You must refrain from the illegal possession and use of drugs, including prescription medication not prescribed in your name, and/or the use of alcohol, and must submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to ensure compliance. It is further ordered that you must submit to evaluation and treatment, on an outpatient or inpatient basis, as approved by the U.S. Probation Office. You must abide by the rules of any program and must remain in treatment until satisfactorily discharged by the Court. You must alert all medical professionals of any prior substance abuse history, including any prior history of prescription drug abuse. The U.S. Probation Office will supervise your compliance with this condition.'

On February 25 and 26, 2020, Tulloss provide the Probation Office with a sample for urinary testing, which yielded positive results for cocaine.

2 The offender has violated the special supervision condition which states 'You must contribute 500 hours of community service work over a period of 60 Months or less, from the date supervision commences. Such service will be without compensation, with the specific work placement to be approved by the U.S. Probation Office.'

Tulloss has not completed any community service hours since the last court notification on January 7, 2020. He has only complete four (4) of his 500 required community service hours thus far.

U.S. Probation Officer Action:

When confronted, Tulloss expressed having a difficult time emotionally and believed he was depressed. Tulloss was referred for psychiatric treatment services, where Tulloss was prescribed Lexapro which he reports improved his mood and level of motivation. Tulloss will continue dual-diagnosis counseling sessions. The Probation Office will continue to monitor his participation and compliance with treatment and supervision conditions. We recommend no formal Court action at this time. The Probation Form 12A (Report on Offender under Supervision) will also serve as an official written reprimand from the Court.

Respectfully submitted,

Elisa Martinez/km
